SUMMER RESEARCH FUNDING FOR TENURE-TRACK AND TENURED FACULTY

Purpose
To provide financial support for tenure-track and tenured faculty to engage in scholarly activity during the summer months.

Amount of Award
Awards range from $1000 - $5000. In previous years, awards have averaged $3500. Awards may be in the form of a stipend or may cover research expenses, such as travel, research assistance, or some combination thereof.

Submissions Accepted: September 7, 2015 through October 5, 2015. In fairness to other potential applicants, late applications will not be considered.

Eligibility
- An applicant must be a full-time probationary, i.e., tenure-track, faculty member at the time of receipt of the award or a faculty member with regular faculty rank, appointed without term, i.e., with tenure.
- Individuals whose rank is prefixed with Affiliate, Adjunct, Research, Term, or Visiting are not eligible.
- Faculty members who have been denied tenure in the sixth year or who are in the final year of a terminal contract are not eligible.
- Joint applications from two or more faculty will not be considered.
- A faculty member rarely receives Summer Research Funding more than once in every three years.
- A faculty member who has received other research funds from the Office of Research (i.e. Seed Grant, Creative Award, Study Leave) during the last two years is not eligible. Exception: This does NOT include the Provost’s Study Leave for Tenure Track Faculty, which is a one semester leave offered during the first five years of the tenure track cycle.
- A faculty member is rarely awarded Summer Research Funding in the same year as a study leave.
- Funding from this program is not available to supplement funding from other sources for the same project.
- A faculty member who receives Summer Research Funding is required to remain a full-time employee of the University for at least one academic year after the conclusion of the award.
- Award may be used to support new initiatives or to continue work in progress.
- A faculty member who accepts Summer Research Funding MUST agree to serve as a reviewer of future funding applications.

Selection
The Office of the Provost awards Summer Research Funding based on reviews by faculty members from several disciplines.

Last Updated: August 27, 2015
Period of the Award
Awards are normally given to support activities conducted during the summer months. Reasonable portions of the award may be used to cover expenses incurred in the semesters before and following the award period.

Review Criteria
Reviewers will be asked to rate each proposal according to the following criteria on a 50 point scale.

- Value to the applicant
  - Potential for extramural funding resulting from the activities (10 points)
  - Potential for publication or appropriate professional outlet (10 points)
- Intrinsic merit of the project
  - Significance of the project for the field (5 points)
  - Value of the project to the University and society (5 points)
- Quality of the Approach
  - Quality of the research or project design (5 points)
  - Appropriateness of the method to the question (5 points)
- Feasibility of the project within available resources (10 points)

Application Submission Process
All application materials for summer research funding will be submitted entirely online at the following web site (copy and paste the link in your browser): https://randed.gmu.edu/srf/index.cfm. You will need your GMU email username and password to login. All application materials must be converted to PDF format in order to be uploaded to the web site. The application cannot be edited once it is submitted, so please verify your information before submitting.

In order to maintain confidentiality, the Dean, Director, or Chair Letter of Support should be emailed directly to the program coordinator Jocelyn Hanly.

All application materials, including letter of support, must be received by close of business on October 5, 2015. Late materials will not be accepted.

Application Details
In order for your application to be deemed complete, it must contain the following items:

A. Description of the Project: Maximum of 3 pages, single-spaced, for non-specialist readers. The description should be brief, non-technical, and include the following:

1. A statement of the central problem or question to be addressed by this research and its scholarly or creative significance.
2. The objectives of the project, the methods to be employed, its relation to existing literature in the field, and a timetable for completion of the work.
3. An explanation of how the applicant's program, department or the University will benefit from this research. A description of how you will share what you have learned with colleagues, students and the external research community, including publications and presentations.
4. A description of how this project will contribute to the scholarly development of the applicant and of how it will enhance future opportunities, including external financial support, new partnerships, improved teaching, etc.

B. Curriculum Vitae: Maximum of 3 pages, emphasizing publications related to the project.

Last Updated: August 27, 2015
C. Budget: Maximum of 1 page. Should include itemized expenses (e.g., equipment, travel, and material) that the requested amount will cover. The budget may include a stipend for the applicant or GRA.

D. Dean, Director, or Chair Letter of Support: Maximum of 1 page. It should address the quality and importance of the proposed activity, the competence of the applicant to complete the activity and the adequacy of the proposed plan.

All application materials, including letter of support, must be received by close of business on October 5, 2015. Late materials will not be accepted. Contact Jocelyn Hanly or 703.993.2268 if you have questions.